INSTRUCTIONS

Make as many copies as needed for your classroom.

To save on paper copies you can print the pages back-to-back and/or print two pages per sheet by reducing the pages when printing.

You might also insert the pages into page protectors and have students use dry-erase markers.

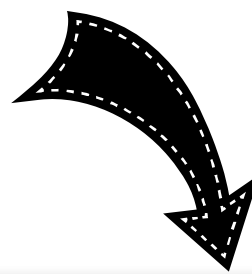

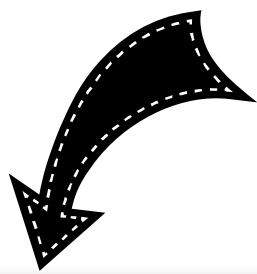

I've included a cover page that you can use to create booklets. Just staple all the pages together.

HOW TO USE

You can use this resource as:

- bell work (morning work)
- early finisher's activity
- review/extra practice
- homework
- and more!

If your students benefit from this free sample, check out the full versions with more than 150 words each!
